Songkran Festival in Thailand

If you are in Thailand in the middle of April, you will experience a fun time you will never forget. The Thai New Year is celebrated on April 13 and it is guaranteed to leave you touched. Songkran, also known as the water festival, involves splashing, spraying and dousing one another with water and is liked by young and old, especially during that time of the hot season. For special cultural evenings within Bangkok, please contact our Front Office for information

Early Bird Promotion

Have you already planned your next visit to Bangkok and President Park? If yes, you may want to make use of our special EARLY BIRD promotion which you can find on our own website. If you book 30 days in advance, you get 20% discount on best buy rates in all room categories. It also includes free internet, free daily breakfast buffet in Baan President and the rates are net. It only requires full prepayment. Don't hesitate to make use of this fantastic promotion.

Events at President Park

Every three month, the staff and Management take some time out to congratulate each other on their special occasion, namely the staff birthday party and employee of the quarter, who are selected by a committee for best services rendered for front and back of the house. Games, lucky draw, rewards and delicious snacks are part of this fun filled event, which is enjoyed by everybody. Long live the birthday celebrants and we are looking forward to the next event.
